This home is perfect for tourists who simultaneously want to have some fresh air and a taste of a modern home.

Location: Hong Kong, China

Surrounding environment: The Peak

Type of home: Apartment

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 3

Kitchen: 1

The interior of the home:

Facing the Peak, this apartment is on a perfect level for admiring sunsets. Internet access is readily available in the apartment, and the dishwasher automatically switches itself on at a set period of time every night. There are lavender dispensers in the bathrooms, ensuring a “sweet” time.

The exterior of the home:

Our clubhouse has a variety of rooms and activities. First and foremost, there is a large swimming pool and a garden for barbecue parties. A children’s playroom is available for residents only, and the parking is very spacious.

Three recreational activities or points of interest nearby:

1. Nearby, there is a club called the Ladies Recreational Club. Inside, professionals are hired to ensure that you have a relaxing time in the spa. There is also a library full of shelves upon shelves of books. Full of videos to rent, the Video Club is ideal for fans of videos.
2. Downhill, there is a park called the Hong Kong Zoological and Botanical Gardens with exotic flowers and rare birds that sing beautifully. Plants in the greenhouse give off a fragrance no one can miss.

3. Last but not least, there is a biking trail and a running track on Old Peak Road. People who like to keep fit go for a morning jog downhill. Bikers and car drivers give way to each other on the drive downhill, so accidents rarely happen.
