

What a juggler!

by Cynthia Honig

Last Friday, Mr and Mrs Stewart took Calvin and Jon to a circus. At the circus, they watched a juggler juggle three plastic plates. He was very good at it. Calvin simply loved the juggler's act.

When the family got home, Calvin and Jon went straight to the kitchen. Calvin got three plates and told Jon that he was as good as juggling as the juggler at the circus. Then he started throw the plates into the air. He was terrible! Jon who was watching was very scared and said that he would tell Mr Stewart.

At that moment, Mrs Stewart came into the kitchen. At once, Calvin stopped moving and all the plates dropped on the floor. They all broke. When she saw what happened, Mrs Stewart started screaming at Calvin. She told Calvin that he was never allowed to enter the kitchen again. Upon hearing the noise, Mr Stewart also came into the kitchen. He was furious and punished Calvin by making him write, "I'll never juggle plates again" one hundred times.

