

EVER AFTER NEWS

Volume 100, Issue 12

6th October, Ouat

WANTED!
The Raven Queen
 Reward for news about the most powerful Enchantress!
See Pg. 3

New Movie!
The Royal Games
 Members of the band "The Royals" are together again!
See Pg. 4

A Tail of Mischief!
 The true story of a kitty-cat. Chaos makes this kitty purr!
See Pg. 8

APPLAUSE FOR MADDIE!

GOLDIE SAYS "JUST RIGHT!"

By F. Airy

Yesterday, Maddie Hatter, 12, daughter of Mad Hatter, had a great day in her Teatime Café. The famous student taster Goldie Locks, daughter of Goldilocks Porridge, came to Maddie's café to have a "Just Right" food examination. "Goldie is really strict! Hope it goes well!" says Beau Tee, 43, a customer who was eating Beast Stew there.

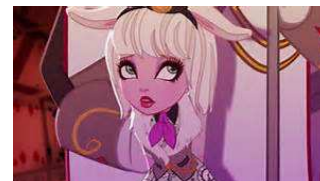

Goldie tried dish after dish. (including "Eat Me"!) She even tried the world's famous "Drink Me". She kept writing comments on her clipboard. She was so concentrated that she didn't notice the crazy teapots, talking-nonsense hats and cups flying all around the café.

After finishing the Mushroom Specialty Dessert, Goldie winked and said, "Just Right!" Maddie was thrilled. She went crazy and started jumping up and down the walls.

- Goldie, revealing the moment of truth after eating the Mushroom Specialty Dessert

It was a perfect day but a tragic night for Maddie. Our newspaper found out that Maddie had to wash all the dishes and work her butt off like Cinderella just because her partner and co-owner of the café, Bunny Rabbit, daughter of White Rabbit, got lost and was late. "I was late because I fell into a hole!" claimed Rabbit, when she was paying a fine of $1000 for being late for the millionth time. After a hectic night with bubbles everywhere, Maddie set a new World Grimm Record of 1989 dishes being washed in one night.

- Miss Rabbit, in the Court of Cards, waiting to pay the fine for being late

If you are finding a crazy café that offers delicious food, contact Maddie via email: teatimecafe@cuckoo.com
 You will find Teatime Café "Just Right!"

Cerise Hood: Royal or Rebel?

Cerise Hood, daughter of Red Riding Hood, was found with WOLF ears on her head! It turns out that her father is the Big Bad Wolf, who was formerly mistaken as a rebel. Cerise completely denies it.....

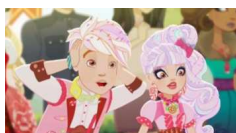

- Cerise, found with wolfish features, secretly visiting her father

Continued on Pg. 5

A Sweet Reunion

Helga Candy, daughter of Hansel and Gretel Candy, was accused of stealing crumbs from the Gingerbread Queen. The sweet thief was immediately sent to Pinocchio Prison to join her brother, Hans Candy, who committed candy stealing last year.....

- The Candies, shocked by the news that they have to go to jail
Continued on Pg. 6

