

THE FAIRY TIMES

Our Everyday Fairy News

THUMB-SIZED FAIRYLAND RECORD WINNER KIDNAPPED AGAIN!

WRITTEN BY PR. 6 GRACE WONG

The recent Fairyland Record for being the smallest person in fairyland, Thumbelina, has gone missing and presumed kidnapped by the Frog Prince. This was the second time Thumbelina was kidnapped by a frog.

AFTER the ceremony for receiving the records prize, Thumbelina had been seen to be grabbed by the Frog Prince and brought away to a pond. The only witness, Red Riding Hood, said that she had seen the frog running away with a thumb-sized girl on his back. Mother Goose also said that the Frog Prince had been looking for a girl about his size for a long time, and he thought that Thumbelina would be willing to kiss him and even marry him.

This morning, Thumbelina's parents received a very wet and soggy letter from an anonymous person. The letter claimed that Thumbelina was in the sender's hands and she was safe. After some investigation, the letter was proved to be written by the Frog Prince. Thumbelina's parents were very worried about their daughter's safety and hope they would find her soon. "We hope she doesn't fall into the pond," they said. "She doesn't know how to swim!"

The Fairyland Police promised that they would find the thumb-sized girl before the Frog Prince could force her to kiss him. They also said that according to Fairyland Law, Frog Prince had committed a crime and is now a wanted criminal. The police, hencefore, remind all citizens to contact them if they spot the two of them.

Miss Thumbelina
last seen after the ceremony

Frog Prince now
wanted

The Frog Prince
Award: 1000 fairytons

By the Order of the Fairyland Police Force