

A Picnic

Written by: Chloe Wong

Illustrated by: Jesie Yan

It was a beautiful day in spring. Roy and Anita decided to go on a picnic.

Roy and Anita made some sandwiches themselves and their mother made some lemonade. Next, Mummy showed them a map and told them where to go. While they were reading the map, their puppy climbed into the picnic basket.

When the children were ready, they said goodbye to Mummy. They followed the map and walked to Harbour Park. Once they were there, they strolled around and enjoyed the lovely weather.

After an hour, they found a spot to eat their lunch. Oops! When they opened the basket, their puppy jumped out. There was nothing left in the basket! The puppy had eaten the whole of their lunch. There was no food left, so they went to a nearby store to buy some apple juice and fish and chips.

